Hands On HERITAGE

Cover and feature layouts for This Week in the Poconos magazine
Pocono Pines, PA

A celebration of early American crafts and skills, Quiet Valley's 10th Annual Heritage Craft Day August 6, invites visitors to witness the creativity that characterized early Pennsylvania settlers. This hands-on opportunity introduces skills from weaving, spinning and bobbin lace to horn work, pottery and blacksmithing all in one place.

Continuing the "hands-on" thread, guests can enjoy a presentation of traditional toys and games where they can tryout a variety of samples "for some old fashion fun." A children's area offers the younger crowd a chance to craft a simple toy or rag doll for themselves, along with QV's master puppeteer, Bonnie Scott, teaching puppet making.

Calling the event, "A great day of fun, entertainment and education," Quiet Valley Living Historical Farm's Deb DiPasquale adds, "People really seem to enjoy the opportunity to see close up how these crafts are made but most especially they like to try them out for themselves!"

Applying the day as a chance to "train up heritage crafters for the future," she comments, "It would be a shame for these skills to be lost."

"A great day of fun, entertainment and education!"

SPRING/EASTER 2019
A Publication of Jubilate Music Group

Alfred Sacred

H.W. GRAY
A Tradition of Excellence

Dear Choral Club Friend:

Greetings! After a hot summer, it's finally getting cooler here in Nashville, and by the time this box hits your desk, unless you live in a year-round warm spot of North America (and a lot of our choral club members do), it's cold where you are now. But once again... the glorious seasons will change and bring about spring and then...the wonderful celebration of Easter.

This box is filled with our best to you. Our Jubilate Music Group Editorial Team has poured over countless manuscripts to arrive at the music in this box. We attempt to bring you a balanced "diet"...from highly traditional to middle-of-the-road (and in this box, to a downright foot-stomping gospel piece!). Just like all of us in God's Kingdom, there's "plenty good room" for different musical styles these days in various churches out there.

So wherever you are and whatever style of music you may use (or whatever the temperature may be!), our hope and prayer is that you will enjoy this music, and more importantly, that it will heighten and enrich your choir and church's worship experiences.

Once upon a time, people came to libraries for books. Period. But things have changed since our library was founded in 1909. Today, the library is a vibrant community resource. People use the library as the place for learning about themselves, their township, their neighbors, and the greater world. Opportunities to strengthen and build community happen here, at the library. Of course, people still come to our library for information and research, entertainment, sharing books, DVDs, magazines, newspapers, Internet access and computers.

The library is an essential space where respect, civility, openness, and kindness are the order of the day.

Please help us continue these important services. Your tax-deductible donation goes 100% to providing this safe, welcoming place for everyone.

And, if you haven't been to the library in a while, please stop by. You are welcome here!

Many thanks to Kim Williams for his October presentation, "History and Mystery" about the DL&W railroad, from Mt. Bethel to Paradise. Fascinating! We have interesting topics at every meeting — open to all, and refreshments are served. Come hear some stories about this beautiful place we call Paradise!

END OF YEAR meetings

In November, we heard from Bernadine Lennon, of the Greene Dreher Historical Society. A retired US Navy Commander, Bernadine has done a lot of research on WWI and the role of the YMCA during those years. The information in her talk was a complete surprise to most of us, including the link between the YMCA and the Carlton Family. Check the next issue of Paradise Past for a summary.

Our holiday meeting will be held Sunday, December 2nd at 2 PM at the Ace Store, thanks to the generous invitation of owner Susan Layton. This is a members-only meeting — if you aren't a member yet, send in your membership coupon today, or you can join at the door. See you there!
